

Dear FCC

I am very upset about Sinclair forcing it's affiliates to air a lengthy anti- Kerry pseudo-documentary days before our election. Sinclair is saying this program is 'news' despite its obvious partisan bias.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But Sinclair is acting more like a Soviet-style propaganda organ with it's own (rather than the Public's) interests and agenda pushing its program decisions.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
